Outskirts Press, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 224 x 147 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Have you ever tried to get out of debt, only to find it depressing, depriving and down right to ugly to deal with? You are not alone. It takes years of bad decisions and spending to get into debt, but people want to get out of debt in day, week, month, or even a year. As Americans we want to snap our fingers and solve all our debt problems right now! We look for peace from debt counselors we see on television or we go to seminars, hosted by the wealthy, to have them tell us how to spend, save and pay them for their help. However, the answers to our problem will not be found in them. It is in you! Only you can free yourself from the bondage of debt. This is a no-nonsense journey to take you from debt to a strong system of habits and routines. The only thing you need to do is commit to making a change in your spending habits. The guarantee is me. I am free and I want to help you be free too. You ve been waiting for it and now you have it. Finally, it s about time there is some debt relief that comes from a middle-class person just like you. If you want to hear how an average middle-class African American family come out of debt in less than two years with a great credit score, this book is for you. You won t find in this book a one size fits all strategy. However, you will find tried and proven steps that have helped one family liberate themselves from debt. By reading this...
