Johnston s Resolutions. Hon. Provincial Secretary rose and said: Having been called upon. Mr. Chairman, by my Han. and learned friend the Leader of the Administration, as being more familiar with the correspondence which has passed on the various topics touched upon in the speech of the Hon. and learned Leader of the Opposition, I rise to vindicate the government from the aspersions which have been cast upon it. And. sir, before I sit down, I shall give to the Committee the reasons which prevent me from sanctioning the string of resolutions now before them. The Hon. and learned mover will allow me to say - that those resolutions-might have been drawn in a spirit reflecting more credit upon the generous feeling and good taste of the opposition; he will pardon me when I tell him, that, in the general tone and tendency of his observations of yesterday - as well as in the structure of his resolutions - a design is palpable, unfairly and ungenerously to drag into this discussion those who should. under our present constitution, be kept entirely free from animadversion in the documents presented to, or in the language used in this Assembly. it is true that the Hon. member has kept himself more guardedly within the privileges of the House than he did last year; but still it will be apparent that there has been a desire unfairly to reflect on the Head of the government. I regret that this disposition is so apparent; I had hoped...
