Excerpt: . . . mail center develop a written mail security plan and have it reviewed annually by a competent authority. Beyond mail-related requirements, GSA also requires the highest-ranking federal official of the largest agency in GSA-controlled ( leased ) office 10 space to develop an occupant emergency plan. GSA guidance related to this requirement recommends that the occupant emergency plan describe, among other matters, critical information about the office space and actions to be taken during emergencies. The GAO Comptroller Generals Standards for Internal Control in the Federal Government provides the overall framework for agency 11 management to establish and maintain effective internal control. Establishing effective internal controls is a major part of managing an organization. Such controls include the plans, methods, and procedures to be used to meet an organizations mission, goals, and objectives by, among other things, monitoring performance, training employees, and ensuring that federal requirements, such as GSA and DOD mail security requirements, are followed. The Pentagon receives its mail from the Postal Service as well as from How Did the...
