Dekel Publishing House. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Rights of the Hebrew Nation in Israel / Palestine: Evidence Based Argumentations, Moshe Schwarzberg, According to "Time" magazine ("A Land Divided", 25 March 2002) the history of the conflict started with the 1947 decision of the United Nations to divide Palestine between Jews and Arabs. With one strike on the journalist's keyboard, the entire history of the region was amputated at the year 1946, when Palestine was first divided, with the establishment of the Transjordanian Emirate, now known as Jordan. As a consequence of the misleading chronological presentation of events, a thirty-year history of bloodshed - the period of the 1918-1948 British Mandate - was wiped clean as if it had never happened. The purpose of this booklet is to present a series of argumentation based on evidence, solid information that precedes opinion, and proven data followed by a preliminary conclusion.
