My Home Is Far Away: An Autobiographical Novel

By Dawn Powell

Steerforth. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 295 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.2in. x 1.0in. My Home is Far Away is the most precisely autobiographical of Powells fifteen novels. In this family chronicle set in early twentieth century Ohio, young Marcia Willard's family struggles to keep up with the rapidly changing times, and Marcia endures disillusionment, cruelty, and betrayal to forge a survivors sense of independence. John Updike has compared Powell with Theodore Dreiser, Willa Cather, Sherwood Anderson, and those other Midwestern writers who felt something epic in the national shift from rural to urban, from provincial sequestration to metropolitan liberation. By 1941, when Powell set to work on My Home Is Far Away, she was better known for the smart, boozy, bawdy, hilarious send-ups of Manhattan high and low life. She had begun to attain a reputation for high sophistication and nothing could be less sophisticated in the glittering, all-knowing, furiously present-tense, big-city manner Powell had perfected than My Home Is Far Away. This was the month of cherries and peaches, of green apples beyond the grape arbor, of little dandelion ghosts in the grass, of sour grass and four-leaf clovers, of still dry heat holding the smell of nasturtiums...

This book will never be straightforward to start on looking at but extremely exciting to read. I actually have read through and that I am sure that I am going to gonna go through once more again in the future. I am happy to explain how this is the very best book I have read through in my individual lifestyle and may be the best publication for at any time.
