Then he joined the Marines and she departed to take advantage of a scholarship at the University of Florida. The years went by; Lily graduated with honors, then went on to get her Masters, then PhD. At the students Christmas party held in the Student Union Building, they met again. He was a Gunnery Sergeant and enrolled in a special program to become a Marine officer. Lilly married her newly commissioned lieutenant and that was probably the best day of their marriage. The Marines had made a dedicated killer of her man and, live by the gun, die by the gun, he was killed in action in Vietnam. She received the 400, 000 insurance that was what her man was worth to the Marines. Lilly survived doing what she loved: working as a wildlife ecologist and conservationist. The years went by and that 400, 000 was gradually shrinking. How Lilly managed to survive, then hunt for and find another husband is a story of dedication, resolve, and self-confidence.
